

Plein Air Only - Plein Air of the Midwest Exhibition

Mainstreet Gallery is pleased to announce "Plein Air Only," featuring plein air paintings from the Midwest. If you've been out painting en plein air all summer, now is the time to showcase your works for the whole month of September.

Plein air painting challenges artists to demonstrate their skill and experience to create compelling works under a time restraint; capturing a scene simply, clearly, and with impact.

Please join us and let the community see what is possible and how delightful and fresh these paintings can be.
